Jesus looked far into the future and He could see, He would have to come and die on that tree.
He did it willing for you and me, Without His death, with Him we could never be.
Once a sacrifice was a ram.
But for us it is Christ the Lamb.
Oh Lord, Your name is to be praised.
And what You do for us, I am so amazed.
So take courage my friend,
The way things are now will come to an end.
We will forever with Jesus live, Because His life for us He did so freely give.
We don't know what tomorrow holds, But His revelation to us He gradually unfolds.
Sometimes He even lets us know what lies ahead, Search His word to find out about what He said.
There is no time to look back at the past, Only those things found in His Word will last.
In righteousness, everything we must do,
And during our temptations He will bring us through.
Can we comprehend all that pain?
Never will He have to do that again.
He did it for you and me,
That's why all that suffering He went through.
There is so much yet to look forward to, And Jesus will always be there for you.
Just keep looking up, one day you will see, Jesus coming in the air, coming after you and me.
